Sanctuary is a sacred tradition across many faiths of welcoming immigrants and standing against actions that would tear families and communities apart then and now.

Through interfaith prayer and ritual, we gather to reaffirm sanctuary for and be in solidarity with all immigrants and to honor the legacy of Japanese immigrants and Japanese American families who were forcibly separated and relocated to incarceration camps in 1942.

El santuario es una tradición sagrada en muchas religiones que consiste en dar la bienvenida a los inmigrantes y oponerse a acciones que destruirían a familias y comunidades entonces y ahora.

A través de oraciones y rituales interreligiosos, nos reunimos para reafirmar el santuario y estar en solidaridad con todos los inmigrantes y para honrar el legado de los inmigrantes japoneses y las familias japonesas estadounidenses que fueron separadas por la fuerza y reubicadas en campos de encarcelamiento en 1942.
